So instead of staying home to find a husband, Mulan dresses like a man and heads off to war, taking her father’s place. Her ancestors try to send a powerful dragon to help her, but a boney dragon named Mushu sneaks off with her instead. Mulan struggles at first but becomes a brave and skilled fighter against the Huns and finds new friends in unexpected places.

Afraid of his father’s expectations, E.B. takes a rabbit hole trip to Hollywood, where he hopes to make it big as a rock musician. Instead, he almost gets run over by Fred, an aimless twenty something whose parents would really like him to move out and get a job. Fred can’t believe his eyes when E.B. starts talking to him, and the two of them end up becoming unlikely friends who help each other save Easter and their goals for a fulfilling career.

Madagascar 3: Europe's Most Wanted

As MADAGASCAR 3: EUROPE'S MOST WANTED opens, the four missing Central Park Zoo stars Alex the lion, Marty the zebra, Gloria the hippo, and Melman the giraffe are still lost in Africa and homesick for the Big Apple. After the clever penguins build a plane and head off for Monte Carlo, the musical group, they find the energy to swim to Monaco. But before they can grab the penguins, the friends wreck a casino and are chased by strong animal-control cop Captain DuBois, who will stop at nothing to hunt and kill her one remaining animal trophy the lion. The only escape for Alex and his pals is to pretend to be circus performers and join a travelling circus led by complaining Russian tiger Vitaly and sweet jaguar Gia.
